Dry, herbaceous or aromatic white

Unoaked with a zesty, tangy character often with defined green fruit, herb or floral aromas, backed by a mouth-tingling, refreshing palate. The best wines and those from warmer countries show more intense flavours. Great with white fish, chicken and other white meat dishes, particularly when cooked with green herbs or in creamy sauces. The most aromatic and less dry wines work well with lightly spiced dishes.

Juicy, fruit-driven, ripe white

Richly flavoured with the attention firmly on their ripe, often tropical fruit character, these wines have plenty of personality. The higher quality wines show more sophistication in the way the fruit and structure are balanced. They have the weight of flavour to cope with strongly flavoured seafood, chicken and pork dishes which may be lightly spiced or have light creamy sauces.

Full-flavoured, nutty, oaked white

The fruit flavours of these wines are complemented by the influence of oak, adding notes of vanilla, spice and nuts to the finish. The combination of ripe fruit and oak make these the most complex white wines. The European wines are delicious with seafood and all but the darkest meats with butter or cream-based sauces, whilst the richer 'new world' examples match well with even spicier and richer sauces.

*"I only drink champagne when I'm happy, and when I'm sad.
Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone.
When I have company, I consider it obligatory
I trifle with it if I am not hungry and drink it when I am.
Otherwise I never touch it - unless I'm thirsty."*

Red wine

Spicy, peppery, warming red

Made from grapes such as Shiraz (Syrah) these wines have a natural peppery or spicy nature. Top wines also have rich, ripe, powerful and warming fruit flavours. A good selection with strongly flavoured beef and lamb dishes. The richest, ripest wines when paired with spicy foods, act as if to turn the heat up.
